Jasmine Davenports dark and humiliating secrets stay just that during the day, but haunt her dreams at night. Convinced her past in Maine will stay where it belongs, the single mother remains focused on her number one goal: getting her only child to graduation day in one, unscathed, piece. Content to put her love life on hold until her son is safely tucked away at college; shes unprepared for the feelings that arise with the arrival of Dayton's newest resident; single father, Jason Bach. Ignoring the chemistry between them, Jasmine is determined to keep their relationship platonic. When her resolve fails her miserably, the two embark on a passionate, yet secretive, relationship. As the two enjoy the newness of their relationship with all the delicious discoveries that it encompasses, they are unprepared for the shocking, life-altering news they receive. When the dust settles and life returns to a new kind of normal, Jasmine is blindsided once again when her past threatens to destroy her newfound happiness.
