

The Rhythm of my Heart (Matters of the Heart) (Volume 1)

Grace Rivers is your everyday twenty-five year old. She could have the world at her feet, but instead chooses to help run the family business. After experiencing great loss early in her life, Grace values what's most important: her family and friends. But she aches to find that certain someone that one great, passionate love who values family as much as she does. Cole Tierney loves his life. He has a wonderful family, a loyal best friend and a successful career as an ER doctor. The only downside is he wants someone to share it with. After being used and left heartbroken, he wants to find someone who will love him for him and not his or his family's status. Every beat my heart makes is for you. Every time it beats faster it's because of you because you're near me, because of your smile because you take my breath away. Their two hearts collide by chance and an undeniable connection is quickly made. But when others are plotting against their happiness, will their love flatline, or will the rhythm of their hearts continue to beat as one?  This book is recommended for people over 18 years due to strong language and sexual content.
