

Rain (French Edition)

Rain Milo est un adolescent malmene par la vie. Ayant perdu ses parents quelques années auparavant dans un accident de la route, il vit depuis chez son oncle, qui ne se preoccupe pas de lui. De ses journées monotones bercées par la pluie, seule sa passion pour le piano lui donne la force de tenir, en souvenir de sa mère qui lui avait appris à en jouer. Mais un jour, même cette passion n'est plus suffisante. Milo décide de finir, et il serait allé au bout de son geste si un inconnu n'était pas intervenu pour le sauver. L'homme se nomme Glen, et il est lui aussi une de ces personnes que la vie n'a pas épargnées. Après s'être confié l'un à l'autre, Milo et Glen décident d'affronter ensemble chaque journée qui se présente et de se concentrer sur l'instant présent pour essayer de guérir. Ils construisent une relation atypique, basée sur la confiance et le soutien mutuel jusqu'au jour où tout bascule à nouveau pour Milo. Glen sera-t-il assez fort pour eux deux, et pourra-t-il convaincre l'adolescent qu'au-delà de ce monde de pluie dans lequel ils vivent, le soleil brille et les attend ?
