

Supporting Communication for Adults with Acute and Chronic Aphasia (Augmentative and Alternative Communication Series)

Review Quotes: A speech-language pathologist and aphasiologist can no longer say, I don't do AAC. The authors redefine aphasia management and show us that communication supports can be applied in every area, from assessment and treatment to policy and advocacy for all. A must-read.--Melanie Fried-Oken, Ph.D., CCC-SpProfessor, Oregon Health & Science University (02/25/2013) Review Quotes: This book takes AAC in aphasia into a new stratosphere . . . A must-read for any aphasia therapist who hopes to improve the lives of their patients.--Linda Worrall, BSp, Thy, Ph.D., FSPADirector, NHMRC CCRE in Aphasia Rehabilitation, The University of Queensland, Australia (02/27/2013) Review Quotes: A unique resource written by authorities in the field . . . essential reading for any clinician, lecturer and student who is determined to support a successful life for people with aphasia and their loved ones.--Emma Power, Ph.D., BAppSc, CPSPMSPAA, Lecturer, Neurogenic Communication Disorders, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Sydney (02/27/2013) Review Quotes: A wealth of practical and relevant information on intervention with the ultimate goal of living successfully with aphasia. [This book] should be used by anyone interested in addressing the needs of people with aphasia and their families.--Ellayne S. Ganzfried, M.S., CCC-SLPASHA Fellow, Executive Director, National Aphasia Association (02/25/2013)
