

The Transit of Mars

Chambers is 40, Jason is 19; the cliché or love at first sight? The latter but the world doesn't believe in miracles. They meet at the gym and through getting Jason to model for a photograph to grace the cover of a novel which Chambers is publishing, Jason gets a modelling contract and the world appears to be at his feet. Chambers knows that the key to a long-lasting relationship is honesty and respect but will his own insecurities jeopardise this fledgling relationship? A love that spans the generation gap ... and wildly different waist sizes! I am always very happy to receive your feedback.
